or by accessing our website for online prescription requests:

www.thepumphousesurgery.co.uk (please give 2 full working days notice)

The practice holds surgeries at Great Tey Village Hall on Tuesdays (alternate): 09.30 – 10.00 am Duty Doctor

 (Please ring the main surgery to book your appointment at Gt Tey and request your records are brought along)

Fridays: 09.30 – 9.45 am for Prescription Collection only (for prearranged ordered prescriptions by Tuesday same week)

Appointments Depending on the nature of your call you will be offered a face to face appointment with the Minor Illness Nurse or the Doctor or a telephone consultation with the Doctor. Please note that urgent appointments are only with the duty doctor on the day. The Doctors have duty rotas and cover in turn for urgent matters Monday to Friday. When the Doctors are on duty cover they are not able to deal with routine matters. You can book a non-urgent appointment up to 28 days in advance. Our receptionists are specially trained to fit you in with the most appropriate consulter, be it a doctor, nurse or healthcare assistant. Please help us by being prepared to answer a few general and non-intrusive questions regarding why you need to be seen. If you prefer not to give any information, just let the receptionist know and they will respect your wishes. Are you using online services? If you would like to know more, please phone the surgery telephone number or look on website.

Recommended by Patrick Dent: "I can thoroughly recommend Mr Dove to anyone who wishes to have their equipment repaired, up-dated or just internally cleaned. Mr Dove did all three tasks in record time and caused me no problems or inconvenience. He kept me up-dated on what he was doing and how much the total bill would be."

Great Tey and Little Tey Neighbourhood Outreach

A helping hand – when you need it.

In Great Tey there is a team of local people,
warm and sympathetic helpers:

Ready to act

Ready to help

Ready to listen

If you or your neighbours need a helping hand,
call one of our Action lines.
