GREAT TEY FOOTPATH WALKING GROUP

As we go to press, the country is still in lockdown and the prospect of 'meeting in groups outside' seems a distant memory. However, if you really fancy some fresh air and a little exercise, then there are so many easy to find footpaths in and around Great Tey you can explore, and some amazing countryside is just around the corner too.

Great Tey Parish has over 60 miles of footpaths, most of which join together in some way so that you can easily find a circular route. But they also connect with Chappel, Earls Colne, Coggeshall, Marks Tey and Aldham parishes too making an even more exhilarating walk for those who want to venture further afield.

When our group is allowed, we regularly walk many of these paths, both in Great Tey and adjacent parishes. Obviously at the moment we can't, but we can individually or with one other person outside, so we all look forward to freedom again and hope 2021 will bring that freedom we all crave.

Christmas/New Year will be very different this year, but however and with whom you celebrate it, enjoy it and just try getting out into the countryside, it will really make you appreciate where you live!!
